2011 Inspiration series

28th June 2011

Delegates from across the West Midlands enjoyed a great day with Alistair Bryce-Clegg sharing ideas for How to Look Good Naked, Claire Witcomb exploring like Dora in the outside learning environment and Clare Williams sharing ideas for a 60 minute makeover!

Ideas from delegates for our next event include: creating opportunities to visit other settings during the day, share practice amongst delegates and more from Alistair !

Feedback and comments:

“The photographs and real experiences were beneficial - practical ideas to use in our setting.”

“A fantastic day! I have learnt so much and am taking away lots of ideas. I have been inspired and excited.”

“Feel confident to go back and change things”

“Can say why and how.”

“It has given me lots of ideas and inspiration especially for the outdoor area”

“Going back to school buzzing with ideas.”

“An amazing day, thank you very much.”

“Very motivational.”

“Very useful to have insight into different settings.”

“Really good day. Have come away with lots of ideas and probably my summer has just gone out of the window!”
